COBRESPONDENT, in a letter which we published yesterday, suggests that a compromise should be come to with reference to Section 6 of the Bill for the protection of women and girls—the section which deals with the defilement of girls under 16. In order to give full warning to the Chinese he thinks the operation of the clause might be suspended for three years. We doubt very much if such an amondment would be accepted by the Secretary of State. There can be no intention on the part of the Government to make the ordinance retrospective, and if, as our correspondent states, it is only the richer class of Chinese who take concubines, we cannot suppose that this class will for complaint. CORRESPONDENCE, THE ATTACK ON CONCUMNAGE.

To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL. 26 June, 189 Sin, -I hope you will find space in your valuable columns for the insertion of this somowhat lengthy letter which is called forth by the interesting and important discussion that is being carried on puent the Bill for the protection of women and girls. Before, however, I proceed to discuss the Bill. I wish to notice en present the 3. First reading of a Bill ontitled An weak production in the form of a letter of one if your correspondents signing himself "Justice." The writer of the letter in question commences by attacking Dr Ho Kai for the conscientions discharge of his duty. as a representative of the Chinese. He says Dr. Ho Kai brought upon himself the well-merited though drastic chastisement of the Attorney General. What object, heasks, had the hop. Member, who is supposed to be versed in English law, in asking if 'mar-6. Committee on 'The Waterworks' ringe meant a monogamous marriage and if 16' was to be computed according to English or Chinese ideas of arithmetic. He was ill-advised indeed in asking such question &c. &c. I cannot help pitying the low degree of understanding possessed by 'Justice' which prevents him from parceiving that Dr. Ho Kui, whose knowledge of English law is well known, did not put the question in a private capacity for his own enlightenment, but as a representative of a large section of the community. of English law and legal terms. To my mind the Hon. Member could not possibly have done better than by putting these quesputting up at the Capton Guild. The Government a public declaration of the two and will reside at 36 Kiangse Road, which is about to be passed into law and seriously the domestic arrangements of the Chinese. Justice, together with those who think with him, would doubtless have been more pleased if the learned Doctor had remained perfectly silent and left his constituents in the dark about the whole matter. a silent member, a just, or a figure of wood gent and painstaking, always ready and willing to protect the interests of his fellowcountry-men both in and out of the Council Chamber. Now, let us look at the wellmerited and drastic chastisement which the presumptuous Dr. bought upon himself according to Justice by his plain though awkward questions. What is it? It is more like the vituperation of a school-boy, the declamation of an excited fanatic, the hasty utterance of an inexperienced man. 'This is a British Colony, not an adjunct of the Empire of China, - if Chinamen don't like to do that they can stop away. that Hongkong is a Chinese Colony, and which class of Chinese, except criminals, has ever come to this island with the intention of breaking the law. The learned A torney General encrifices logic to rhetoric, and deliberately begs the question. The bulk of the English laws without undergoing modifications does not apply to this colony, otherwise we need no Legislative Council here. The Bill for the protection of women and children has not vet become law, and it was being considered in Council last Monday when the Chinese, through their representative, sought to have several clauses of it modified so that their domestic arrangements might remain uninterfered with. Why their perfectly constitutional efforts to oppose the passing of the Bill which would likely do them incalculable barm, should meet with the imperious, llogical and ill-brod remarks of the Attorney General, can perhaps only be husbands that effectually deprive them of manager. THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

ITHIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese enused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its Eighteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are appearment in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person con-nected with China or Japan is desirous of nected with China or Japan is desirous of sequiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Goography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolie, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review new gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction,

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messra Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per Victoria Buildings, annum, pestage included - payable in ad-Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. 'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Re- ROAD CENTRAL. mew.'-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

The China Review * * * has an excellent table of contents.'-Celestial Empire. 'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'-Celestial Empire.

This number contains several articles of interest and value.'-North-China Herald. 'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'--North-China

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum. 'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr E. H.

Daily News.

Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length antitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which

"On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. —H.K. Daily Press.

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshmeas of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that Notes and Queries are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be A. G. Gordon & Co., Limited 6,000 8 hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar Geo.
